Dear Mrs. Ham:

In answer to your recent telephone call, we have made a rather rough estimate of the additional amount the county would allow you on the 31810 option.

This amounts to $71.28 a month added to the county pension of an estimated $64.91 until you reach age 62. At that time the total amount would be decreased to $41.31 a month. We have estimated that at that time Social Security would start paying you $94.88 a month. These figures are based on a retirement date of November 15, 1968.

71.28
136.19 to age 62
-94.88
41.31 after 62

Very truly yours,

DELANAV J. DICKSON
County Treasurer

This is to inform you that you have made the following selections in regard to your forthcoming retirement:

1. Service Retirement
 2. Integrated Service Retirement
 3. Safety Member Retirement
 4. Service Connected Disability Retirement
 5. Non-Service Connected Disability Retirement
1. UNMODIFIED PLAN: You will receive the maximum monthly allowance for life. If you have a surviving spouse at the time of your death and you have named him or her as your beneficiary, the said spouse will receive sixty percent of your monthly allowance for life. At the time both you and your spouse pass away, all of your contributions remaining in your account revert to the Retirement System. Should a person without a spouse select the Unmodified Plan, any of his contributions remaining in his account at the time of his or her death will revert to the Retirement System.
2. OPTION #1: You will receive an allowance slightly less than the Unmodified allowance for the rest of your life. Should you pass away, any of your contributions remaining in your account will be turned over to the person or persons you have named as your beneficiary(s). It should be noted that your contributions to the system will be exhausted at approximately ten years after your retirement date. There will not be a monthly continuance.

Dear Mrs. Ham:

At the time you retired you chose Section 31810, the advance against Social Security benefits. Since you are now eligible for a Social Security pension, your County retirement allowance will be reduced by $94.88, in accordance with our original agreement. The new amount will be $53.98, effective with the check to be mailed October 2, 1972. It is your responsibility to apply to Social Security for benefits.

Very truly yours,

TERMITE SOIL TREATMENT GUARANTEE

PURPOSE: FHA Form 2052/VA Form 26-8375 is submitted for proposed construction cases when soil treatment is specified by the builder or required by the FHA or the VA.

It provides a uniform guarantee of termite soil treatment and assures the homeowner that the chemicals used, their concentration, and method and rate of application comply with all applicable FHA standards.

PREPARATION: The builder completes this form. An original and two copies are prepared and sent to the mortgagee upon completion of the soil poisoning work. The mortgagee sends one copy to the local FHA insuring office or VA office prior to final inspection, where it is filed in the case binder. The original and one copy are retained by the mortgagee who provides the mortgagor with the original at closing.

Form 2052/26-8375 is "headed in" by the builder with the FHA/VA case number, street address of the property, legal description of the property, name of the city and state. The lower portion of the form is filled in with the date of treatment; applicator's firm name, signature, title and date; license number of the applicator, when a license is required by state regulations; builder's firm name, signature, title of person signing and date of signing; chemical used, percent of concentration of the chemical in solution; and method used -- soil mixed, rodded, pressure sprayed, etc.

LOCATION OF PROPERTY (Street Address, City and State)

FHA/VA CASE NUMBER

8012 N. 73rd St.

LEGAL DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY

Lot 15

The undersigned builder, his successors or assigns, does hereby guarantee to the mortgagor, his successors or assigns, that the soil has been treated on the above-designated property and that the chemical used in the treatment, its concentration, rate, method, and location complies in every respect with the current standards of the Federal Housing Administration as contained in its Minimum Property Standards for One and Two Living Units.

The builder hereby agrees that, if termite infestation should occur within a period of five years from the date of treatment in the building on the designated property, without cost to the mortgagor he will retreat the soil in substantial conformance with the Federal Housing Administration standards in effect at the time of original treatment, or at the option of the builder he may use the standards in effect at the time of retreatment. The builder further agrees to repair all construction damage by termites within the one year builder's warranty period. This agreement that the property be retreated is not to be considered as a waiver of legal remedies the mortgagor may have against the builder.

If within the guarantee period the validity of an infestation claim is questioned by the builder, the claim will be subjected to investigation by a recognized entomologist agreeable to the mortgagor and builder. The entomologist's certification will be accepted as the basis for disposition of the case. The cost of inspections made to test the claim will be borne by the builder, if the claim is determined to be valid, or by the mortgagor if the claim is invalid.

If, during the term of this guarantee, additions or alterations are made which affect the structure and create new termite hazards, or interfere with the chemical protective barrier, this guarantee will become null and void.

(The following paragraphs taken from that Act control the manner of preparing old date birth or death certificates.)

"And provided further, that any citizen of the State of Texas wishing to file the record of any birth or death, not previously registered, may submit to the Probate Court in the County where the birth or death occurred, a record of that birth or death written on the adopted forms of birth and death certificates. The certificate shall be substantiated by the affidavit of the medical attendant present at the time of the birth, or in the case of death, the affidavit of the physician last in attendance upon the deceased, or the undertaker who buried the body. When the affidavit of the medical attendant or undertaker cannot be secured, the certificate shall be supported by the affidavit of some person who was acquainted with the facts surrounding the birth or death, at the time the birth or death occurred, with a second affidavit of some person who is acquainted with the facts surrounding the birth or death, and who is not related to the individual by blood or marriage. The Probate Court shall require such other information or evidence as may be deemed necessary to establish the citizenship of the individual filing the certificate, and the truthfulness of the statements made in that record.

Dear Mrs. Ham:

Please accept our congratulations on completing 13 years of loyal service to San Diego County, as the result of which you are eligible to receive a lifetime pension starting November 15, 1968.

The amount of your monthly pension from the County to age 62 will be $136.19, and $41.31 thereafter. Since your contributions were $3,339.61 and interest of $659.41 was credited for a combined total of $3,999.02, your investment will yield a far greater return than you could reasonably expect from any other source as safe and secure as this one.

May we again offer our congratulations and our hope that your retirement will be a source of great happiness.

Dear Mrs. Ham:

Although I believe we discussed the questions you had asked concerning retirement, I can't find any record of having sent you anything to refer to in writing.

As an estimate, if you should retire on November 9, 1967, you would receive approximately $50.86 per month. If you retire on November 9, 1968, it would be approximately $62.18 a month. There would also be an allowance from the County on your Social Security, if you chose to take it, until you become 62 years old.

If you should receive an increase in salary between now and the time you retire this would mean a slight increase in your pension. Also if you should lose any time it would set the November 9 date ahead.

I believe this answers all the questions you had asked in your letter. If you have any further questions please do not hesitate to call or write.

Very truly yours,

THE CREED OF THE GODLY OPTIMIST

I SEE BOTH THE GOOD AND BAD OF LIFE,
AND WITHOUT GOD I WOULD BE A PESSIMIST;
BUT BECAUSE CHRIST LIVES IN ME,
I HAVE OVERCOME THE WORLD AND I CAN DO ALL THINGS BY HIS STRENGTH.

I KNOW MY GOD -
HIS CAPABILITIES AND HIS REPUTATION; THEREFORE:
I WILL NOT FEAR NOR BE DISMAYED,
NO MATTER WHAT COMES INTO MY LIFE.

MY PRAYER

When life grows weary from day
to day,
Take my hand and show me Thy Way.

When my heart is troubled, let turmoil cease
And deep inside, help me find peace.

Dear Lord, lest hate should take control
Help me find love within my soul.

When I'm afraid, calm every fear
And may I feel Thy Presence near.

For Thou art the Truth, the Light,
the Way;
So guide my life from day to day.

I expect to pass through this world but once. Any good therefore that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow creature, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.

—Author unidentified

Have you had a kindness shown?

Pass it on!

'Twas not given for thee alone,

Pass it on!

Let it travel down the years,

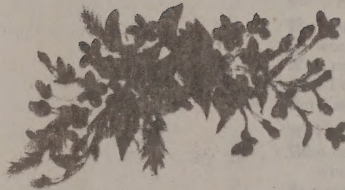

Let it wipe another's tears,

Till in Heaven the deed appears—

Pass it on!

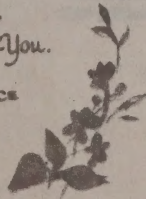

—Henry Burton

This was typed in mother's Bible

There is no name but the name
Jesus

That is sweeter than "Mother"
me

Mother, my darling Mother
Who gave all but her life for me.

Mother, so kind and patient,
With a heart so pure and true;
There is only one love greater—
God's love for me and you.

The dear mother I grieved and worried

With my folly, sin and shame;

O, if I only had her back:

But I'm trying to honor her name.

Had it not been for Mother,
Who taught me to believe God's word,

And remembered me in prayer
every day,

At the throne of her loving Lord.

I might have wandered away in sin,

And then at the pearly gate,

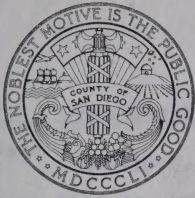

I might have heard the Savior say:

"Too late, my child, too late:"

But I shall strive to meet Mother,

In that better world above,

Where nothing shall enter to mar
Our perfect peace and love.

Dear Mrs. Ham:

Please accept our congratulations on completing 13 years of loyal service to San Diego County, as the result of which you are eligible to receive a lifetime pension starting November 15, 1968.

The amount of your monthly pension from the County to age 62 will be $136.19, and $41.31 thereafter. Since your contributions were $3,339.61 and interest of $659.41 was credited for a combined total of $3,999.02, your investment will yield a far greater return than you could reasonably expect from any other source as safe and secure as this one.

May we again offer our congratulations and our hope that your retirement will be a source of great happiness.

to observe the clinical effect of new food additions. After adding a new food for four days without any flareup in the symptoms, the food is considered part of the diet and continued. If there is a flareup in the symptoms after adding a new food, the food is considered a suspected food, removed from the diet, and tried again at a later date. No new foods should be added on trial if a flareup for any reason is present because then it will be difficult to tell the effect of the new food. Therefore, at this time he was placed on an avoidance list of foods.

A nose and throat culture was taken in order to make a vaccine to his own bacteria and when this is available this will be included in his desensitization injections.

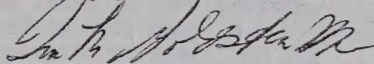

Of interest is the fact that he was given two or three day treatments with intermittent positive pressure breathing on the ultrasonic nebulizer and he said that this helped him quite a bit. He brought up a tremendous amount of secretions and he noted that because of this he was able to sleep much better than he had been doing previously.

At the present time he is being placed on the following regime:

1. Aminophyllin, 3 grs., t.i.d.
2. Phenergan Expectorant, 2 tps., t.i.d.
3. Clistin, 4 mggs., t.i.d.
4. It may be necessary for him to use a small type of compressor in order to deliver the mucolytic agent that he needs to keep his secretions liquid. This will be judged at a future time.

Again, thank you very much for allowing me to evaluate this extremely interesting man and I do feel that a good response should be forthcoming.

Sincerely yours,

Ira M. Goldstein, M. D.

Re: Herbert Ham

Dear Dr. Rozansky:

This is a follow-up note reviewing the evaluation performed in my office on Mr. Herbert Ham.

As you will recall, he had severe chronic bronchitis as well as allergic rhinitis. He was placed on medications for a few days in the hospital and he stated that he did feel better following this.

Upon discharge from the hospital he was seen in my office for further allergy and chest evaluation. Pulmonary function studies were performed which revealed severe airway obstruction but there was a definite change in his vital capacity following bronchodilator therapy. He also had an elevated residual volume/total lung capacity ratio. Of major significance is the fact that his arterial pO₂ was within normal limits. It was noted on x-rays that he did have an ethmoidal and right maxillary sinusitis.

Allergy skin tests were performed and he was found to have positive reactions to dust and molds. Molds are found in wet, damp, musty places in objects which have been stored for long periods of time like old clothes, books and furniture. Garages contain many objects which accumulate considerable amounts of dust and molds. Plants in the home accumulate mold and certain foods which stand around for any length of time accumulate mold and all of these can cause difficulty. In addition to this, such foods as cheeses, namely, Roquefort, Cheddar and Bleu Cheese, are aged with mold and can cause difficulty in this type of patient. Beer and other alcoholic beverages are fermented with molds and yeast and also cause difficulty in mold sensitive individuals.

His skin tests to foods were negative but some patients will have negative skin tests and still be allergic and have positive skin tests and not be allergic to foods. Therefore, these patients may have to be given an elimination allergy diet. If the patient does go on such a regime, he will be on this regime for at least two weeks and then new foods will be added, one at a time, twice a day for a four day trial

Wooden plank road cut through dunes to Yuma

By Richard Crawford

Today's drive on Interstate 8, across the Imperial Valley to Yuma, Ariz., can be a quick beeline through the desert. But in the early 1900s, the route from San Diego was an adventure that featured a risky stretch on a one-lane wooden road through six miles of sand dunes.

The Imperial Sand Dunes run north to south for nearly 50 miles between valley towns and the Colorado River. The stark, spectacular region of towering dunes resembles the Sahara desert and has been featured in films ranging from Rudolph Valentino's "The Sheik" to 1983's "Return of the Jedi."

But for early auto pioneers, the dunes formed a nearly impenetrable barrier. No roads crossed the sand, forcing travelers to detour north around the hills, adding nearly 50 miles to the route between San Diego and Yuma.

Clearly, a direct route through the sand was desirable.

Imperial County Supervisor Edwin Boyd proposed a road-way of wooden planks laid across the most treacherous miles of soft sand. Boyd partnered with San Diego developer and road enthusiast Ed Fletcher, who raised money for lumber. Supervisors agreed to pay for the labor needed to build the desert's first plank road.

In early 1915, workers completed a crude road with two parallel tracks, each 24 inches wide made from 3-inch-by-8-inch wooden planks. The road-way resembled railroad tracks for cars. Turnouts built every mile were added so cars could pass each other on the one-lane road.

The second version of the plank road was made of sections 8 feet wide and 12 feet long, and stretched seven miles through Imperial County sand dunes. San Diego Historical Society planks were shipped to a rail station at Ogilby, a few miles north of the planned road.

At an Ogilby workshop, workers assembled the road surface in 8-foot-wide, 12-foot-long sections. Weighing 1,500 pounds each, the sections were loaded on mule-drawn wagons and taken to the work site. With crude cranes, workers lowered the sections onto the leveled roadbed and bolted them into position.

The new road stretched seven miles. The California Highway Commission adopted the route as Highway 80 in 1917 and took responsibility for road maintenance.

Travel on the new path was an adventure, particularly when cars met on the one-lane strip. Pullouts were stationed about every quarter mile, but often a driver had to back up to find them — marked by wooden posts decorated with discarded tires “dangling as sentinels.”

Driving along the roadway was a major trial. The posted speed limit was 15 mph — a speed few drivers ever achieved.

“You just bumped across it, and it was bumpy,” a driver from Holtville recalled. “I always said that going across the plank road was as good as having a chiropractic adjustment.”

Driving off the roadway could be disaster. The soft sand swallowed wheels. A traveler from 1926 remembered: “If a car falls off there is no hope of retrieving it. We passed many cars dug into the sand mutely waiting to slowly disintegrate.”

Careful drivers packed emergency supplies: shovels, extra boards, auto jacks, and food and water for two days. One plank road veteran recommended a set of boxing gloves for the occasional fistfight with stressed drivers.

Other drivers remembered the trip as a happy adventure. A popular winter outing was a picnic at Gray’s Well at the head of the road, followed by a bouncing drive to Yuma. College students, church groups and families all found the plank road as a party site.

Maintaining the road was a nightmare. Drifting sand often obliterated the route completely. Using scrapers pulled by draft animals, crews cleared the path as best they could, but sections were impassable much of the time.

Road enthusiasts suggested fighting the drifts with “sand sheds” similar to railroad snow sheds of the Sierra. Others recommended an elevated causeway or even a tunnel burrowed beneath the sand hills. The Highway Commission ignored the suggestions, and their crews kept on scraping, “enabling travel to pursue its sandy way.”

As auto travel increased in the 1920s, traffic jams on the plank road became common. At times, schedules were imposed; eastbound traffic would use the road for two hours, followed by westbound cars.

With the heavy use, the condition of the plank road deteriorated rapidly. After rejecting construction of a two-way redwood plank road, the Highway Commission decided to put permanent pavement across the sand. On a raised grade, the engineers laid a 20-foot-wide, asphaltic concrete surface through the sand hills. To tame the unruly dunes, the engineers poured massive quantities of oil on the sand bordering the new roadway to “cake” the sand and prevent wind drift.

The new two-lane highway opened to traffic on Aug. 11, 1926. At the official dedication in October, Imperial Valley officials praised the “black ribbon through the dunes” that defied the “concerted attack of wind and sand.”

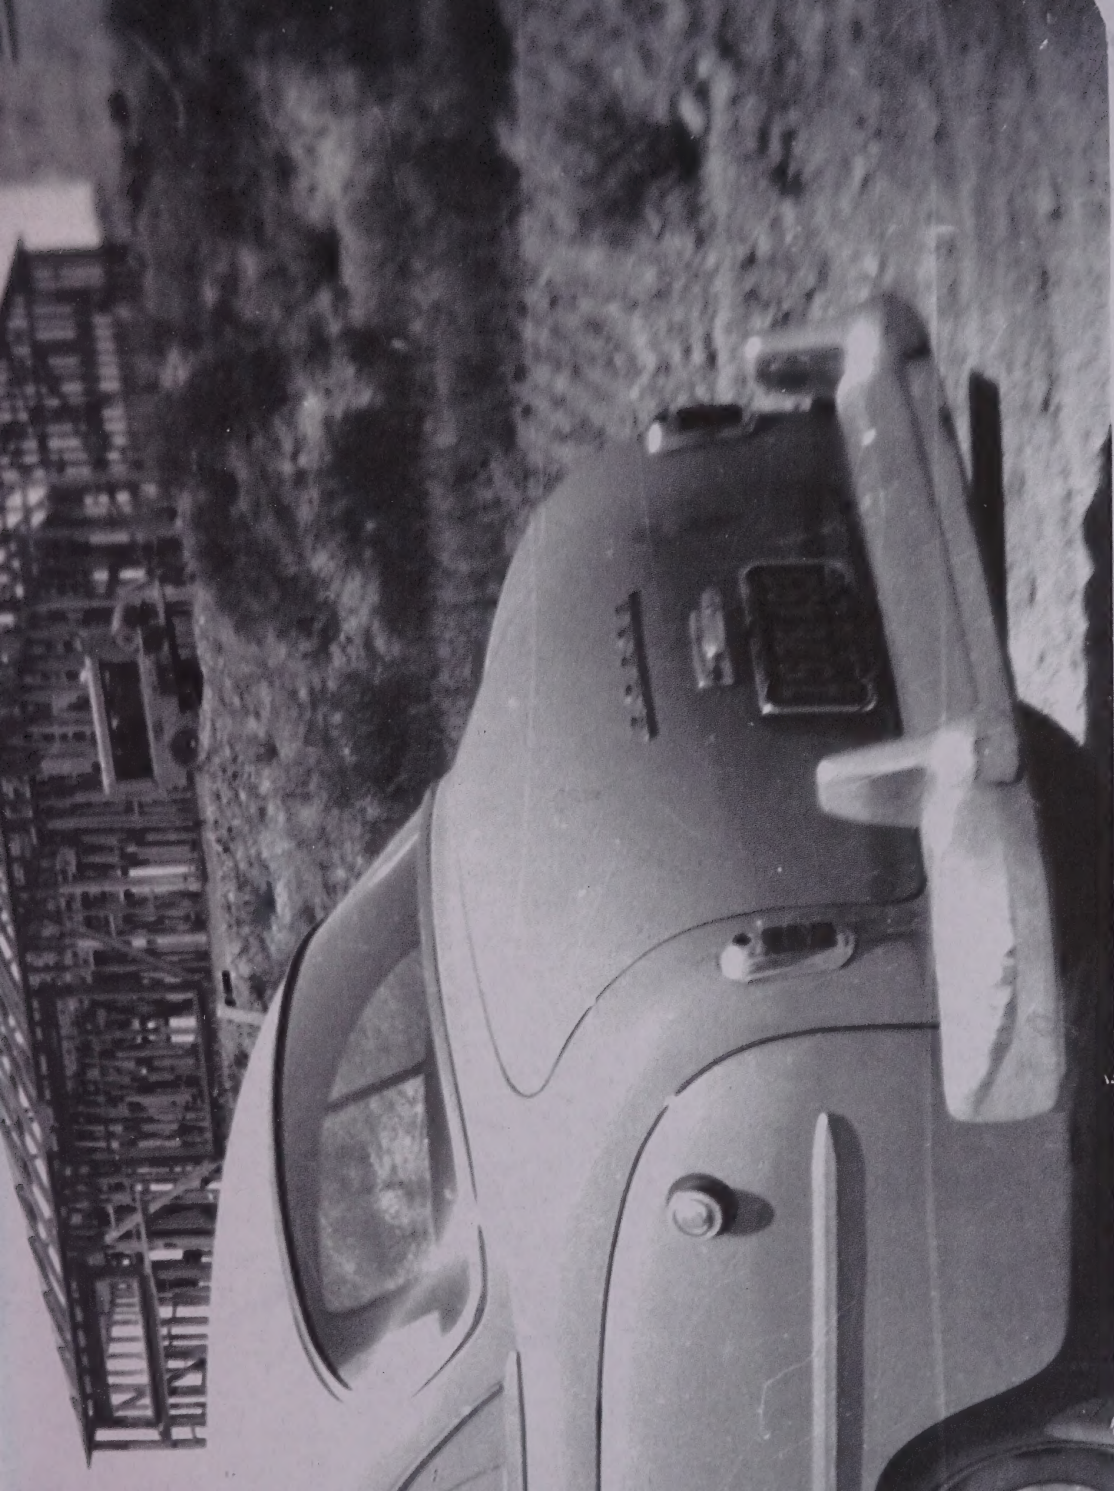

Fragments of the old plank road can still be seen at the west end of Gray’s Well Road, 47 miles east of El Centro, along Interstate 8. A monument and interpretive exhibit at the site commemorate the historical landmark.

Richard Crawford is a local historian.

The track needed constant attention. Maintenance crews repaired splintered planks and cleared windblown sand with mule-drawn scrapers. After only a year of use, the road was a wreck.

But Fletcher and Boyd believed they had proved that a road was practicable. Others disagreed. Joseph Lippincott, a well-known civil engineer and consultant to the Auto Club of Southern California, ridiculed the plank road as “the most asinine thing he had ever heard of.”

Ignoring the skeptics, Fletcher partnered once again with the Imperial County supervisors to provide funds for an improved road. Fletcher raised about $25,000, enough to fill 37 rail cars with lumber. The

OUR PROTECTED NATIVE PLANTS

Nowhere in the United States are there more rare and unusual native plants than in Arizona. Most of them are many years old and cannot be replaced. Tourists visiting this State, and also many of our residents, desire to use these "Wonders of Nature" in their landscaping. Since these plants grow on the desert, it is only natural for one to believe the plants can be removed and taken home.

The Commission of Agriculture and Horticulture would like to explain to tourists, new residents and homeowners the requirements of the Arizona Native Plant Law.

1. Many of Arizona's native plants are protected by the Native Plant Law. To dig up, possess, take and transport these protected plants from private, State or Federal land, you are required to have the written permission of the landowner, or the person having jurisdiction over the land, and a permit issued by the Commission.
2. Application blanks for the possession, taking, digging up or transportation of protected native plants can be obtained by calling the Commission at 271-4191, or writing to P. O. Box 6189, Phoenix, Arizona 85005, or at any of our District offices located in Parker, Yuma, Casa Grande, Tucson, Nogales, Willcox and Safford.
3. The application for a permit is to be made out by the landowner. He signs the document with his name, address and telephone number, and legally describes the property owned by him. He also names the person or persons with their address who are receiving permission to possess, take, dig up or transport the plants. The number and kind of plants must also be listed.
4. When the application for permit is completed, it is to be presented at the Commission's main office located at 1638 West Adams, Phoenix, or at one of our District offices, for approval and verification of information listed. If all information is in order, the permit is issued immediately.
5. The Native Plant Law requires that when a permit is issued, all protected native plants listed on that permit must have a native plant tag and seal attached firmly to each plant during possessing, taking, digging up and transporting of said plant or plants. The tags are to remain on the plants until they are planted on the homeowner's grounds. The homeowner keeps the tags in his possession to show that the plants were obtained legally should an investigator make inquiry.
6. The native plant tags require a fee of $2.00 for each Saguaro cactus and $1.00 each for all other protected native plants. The monies collected are used only for the enforcement of this law, thus protecting and preserving Arizona's natural beauty.
7. All peace officers in Arizona assist the Commission in enforcing provisions of the law. Violations of this law are a misdemeanor and are punishable by a fine of not less than $50.00, or imprisonment not to exceed 90 days, or both. Each plant illegally possessed, dug up, transported, destroyed or mutilated is considered a separate offense.
8. Please remember additionally that all land in Arizona is owned by someone, even if it is not fenced or posted, and any person illegally removing plants or property from these lands can face a charge of theft.
9. Copies of the Arizona Native Plant Law, or information relating to the law, may be obtained by visiting, writing, or calling any Commission office.

Many lives, buildings lost in Pueblo flood

Penrose Library

Peek at the Past, a weekly historical feature, runs Sundays in Lifestyle. In it we reprint stories from the past, preserving the language, sensibilities and prejudices of the day.

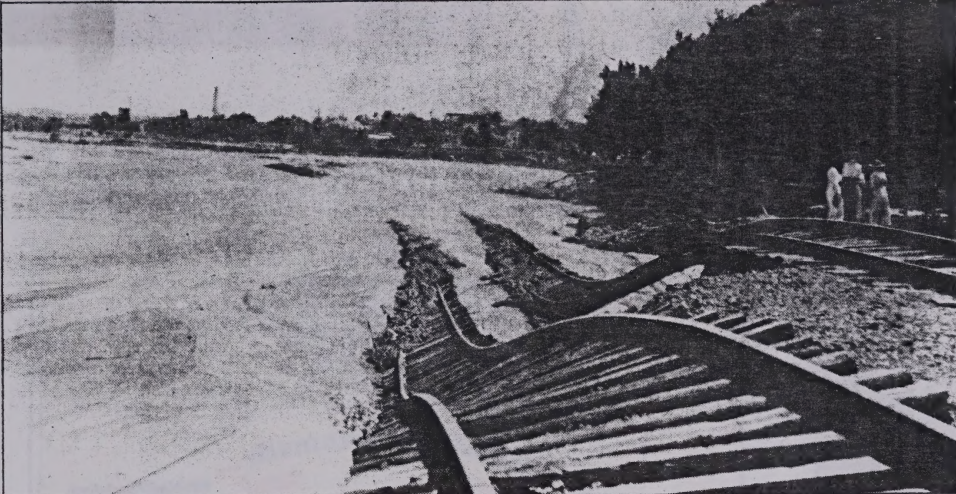

The following story, excerpted from the Colorado Springs Gazette, reports the worst flood in Pueblo history. After a cloudburst, the Arkansas river flooded the lowlands and downtown area, reaching a depth of 21 feet, 4 inches at the area of the Riverside school, while carrying away more than 600 houses and causing $20 million in damage. More than 150 people died.

June 5, 1921

Pueblo's district tonight is a mass of wrecked buildings. Its streets are deep in mud from the Arkansas river, which yesterday overflowed its banks, bringing the worst flood in the history of the city. The death list probably will mount into the hundreds when toll is taken of the wrecked residences and rooming houses in the river bottoms.

A trip over the city by airplane revealed a zone of disaster. Residences had been toppled over, railroad passenger coaches and freight cars had been swept in every direction or smashed into kindling. Blackened ruins showed the location of fires started last night by burning lumber from a lumber yard floating thru the streets in the flood tide. It looked as if a third of the city had been in the flood district.

All persons were prohibited from entering the district without a permit and then only up to 7 o'clock. Scores of persons were detected looting stores as the flood poured its way into the streets last night. A hundred shots were fired at the looters by soldiers.

Two morgues tonight held 132 bodies and scores of dead were discovered in wrecked buildings where their recovery was impossible because of mud and debris. The force of the flood carried entire buildings down the stream and it is believed many of the dead were carried far down the river and may never be recovered.

The first warning of yesterday's flood came shortly after five o'clock, telephone messages which said that dams near Portland were threatened and the water in the Arkansas River had risen dangerously at Westmore, Portland and Florence. The fire department siren sounded 15-minute flood warnings and within a short time every available police officer and guardsman was sent into the West Peppersauce river bottoms of West Pueblo to warn the inhabitants.

People were slow to leave and many refused according to soldiers. One woman dragged from her home before the flood-crest reached the bottoms, crawled under the house and refused to come out. It is feared a heavy loss of life resulted in this section. Scores of people were caught as the flood entered Main street flowing south into Union avenue. Within two hours the entire wholesale district and a greater part of the business district were flooded with water 10 feet deep.

The Pueblo Chieftain, located off Main street, had only a three-day supply of print paper in the building. This was water-soaked, and with no power to operate the linotype machines or press it was unable to get out an edition. Handbills, set and operated on hand-operated machines, gave meager reports yesterday.

One old man, 75 years old, remained all night in a tree in the north part of town, and was rescued yesterday afternoon. He said he had seen nearly a hundred people perish during the night. Another man, whose name was not secured, watched over 50 squatters, Mexicans and Italians, washed away thru the section just below Union avenue. They were carried into the giant stream. The mud and sand being carried downstream will perhaps cover them and bury them under the foundation.

Mrs. Lillie A. Ham

Mrs. Lillie A. Ham, 66, of 1285 E. Washington Ave., El Cajon, a former practical nurse at the Solar Division at International Harvester Co., died Monday in a hospital.

A county resident for 45 years, Mrs. Ham was a native of Hamilton Tex., and worked at Solar for 17 years. She was a member of the Sunshine Club at Edgemont Geriatric Hospital in San Diego.

She is survived by her husband, Herbert, a son, Donald of El Cajon; three daughters, Mrs. Berniece Horton of El Cajon, Mrs. Maryalice Pittman of Arizona and Mrs. Willie L. Brown of Illinois; three brothers, Thed Wood of Riverside and Horace Wood and A.D. Wood, both of Colorado; two sisters, Mrs. Doble Gosnell of Texas and Mrs. Effie Ray of Colorado; 13 grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren. The family suggests contributions to the Leukemia Society of America.

Services will be at noon today in Greenwood Mortuary, to be followed by burial in Greenwood Memorial Park.

Rest In Peace

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou hast increased my head with oil: my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Full 50 Year Warranty Certificate

FOR BATESVILLE STEEL MONOSEAL CASKETS

This Warranty gives you specific legal rights, and you may also have other rights which vary from state to state.

BATESVILLE CASKET COMPANY, INC., Batesville, Indiana ("Batesville") hereby warrants, to the funeral director, and to the funeral director's client:

That upon completion of, and immediately before the shipment of this casket, it successfully passed the vacuum test devised by Batesville to assure that, at the time of shipment, it was completely resistant to the entrance of air and water, and,

That upon notice to it, Batesville will within ten days replace this casket with one of similar quality, if, at any time within 50 years after the date of interment, it has failed in any way to resist the entrance of air, water or any element found in the soil in which it is interred, provided it was properly sealed and was not damaged after leaving the Batesville factory, and an opportunity is afforded for examination of the casket by Batesville representatives and/or impartial experts designated by them.

Batesville employees or representatives are not authorized to change this Warranty in any way or grant any other warranty. Batesville shall not be responsible for any consequential damages arising out of any breach of this express Warranty or any implied warranties. Some states do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so the above limitation or exclusion may not apply to you. The purchaser's remedy shall be strictly limited to replacement of the casket as stated in the preceding paragraph.

Batesville's performance of this Warranty has been insured and guaranteed under a surety bond No. 2763998 issued by SAFECO Insurance Company of America for the entire period of 50 years after this interment in an amount equal to the market value of the casket at the time of disinterment, but not to exceed $5,000.00.

Everything

within quiet,
secluded,
sacred grounds.

Greenwood is the helping hand a family wants. For three generations, Greenwood has extended this helping hand, and for three generations San Diego families have relied on it. Greenwood is San Diego's finest mortuary, cemetery, and memorial park. And it is much more. Within its sacred grounds are mausoleums, columbariums, crematory, Veterans section, monuments, markers, and flower shop. Each is a good reason for Greenwood to be the choice of more San Diego families than any other mortuary.

Families that come to Greenwood at a time of sorrow are assured convenience and comforting seclusion.

world's largest mausoleum

UNDER CONTINUING CONSTRUCTION...

THE BIBLE MAUSOLEUM is not just the largest in the world, but the most outstanding in many other ways. Covering two full acres of ground, and still under construction, the Bible Mausoleum is designed in Greek modern style with twelve corridors forming its basic plan. Each corridor on the main floor is presided over by a life-sized statue of one of the twelve apostles. The twelve statues, each a treasure of modern sculpture, were commissioned by Greenwood and created in Carrara, Italy, of famed Carrara marble used extensively by Michelangelo. Off the great central hall of the Bible Mausoleum is a breathtaking full-sized replica of Leonardo da Vinci's renowned painting, "The Last Supper." For its art treasures, for its architectural beauty and interest, for its continuity with its surroundings, Bible Mausoleum is a major cultural contribution to San Diego.

One convenient location one lower cost...

Only Greenwood offers the exclusiveness of a mortuary within sacred memorial grounds. The convenience of undertaking within a cemetery eliminates the need for a long journey from mortuary to cemetery and flower shop, providing beauty and dignity. This is a comfort and solace to the bereaved. Long tedious funeral processions through busy city streets are avoided. One appreciates ample parking that is provided, free from noise and congestion. All arrangements for funeral service and interment can be made in one visit, with one understanding counselor, under one management. Yet, so much more costs no more.

comfort to the living

Truly this is a place of beauty filled with towering trees, flowers and shrubbery, sweeping lawns, splashing fountains, singing birds, sculptured marble, majestic art and the beauty of fine memorial architecture. Created not only to honor the dead, but to bring comfort to the living. A park that depicts life rather than death, hope instead of despair... a place where nature's own symbols of life proclaim immortality. Visitors are welcome. No reservations or advance arrangements are necessary. For further information contact the administration office.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Security Agreement on the reverse side hereof is made and accepted subject to the following expressed terms and conditions:

When used in this agreement the term Seller means Greenwood Memorial Park, Inc.

No right in or to said property shall pass to purchaser until the purchase price, together with the deposit in the Endowment Care Fund, is fully paid and conveyance made as herein provided. The amount of the deposit to be made by purchaser in the Endowment Care Fund for Greenwood Memorial Park for the interment property or memorial purchased is shown on the face of this contract. The amount of this deposit is fixed from time to time by the Board of Trustees of Greenwood Memorial Park, Inc., as provided in Section 8728 of the Health and Safety Code of California. One endowment care fund, into which deposits are made by all purchasers, provides through income for the care and maintenance of all portions of the cemetery. Upon receiving the purchase price with credit service charges, and interest on all deferred payments, together with the deposit in the Endowment Care Fund, Seller agrees to cause to be executed and delivered to purchaser a good and sufficient certificate of ownership or deed conveying the interment rights in said cemetery property. The purchaser hereby consents and agrees to the carrying on of such businesses and activities and the sale of such commodities and the sale and performance of such services as are now carried on, sold or performed by Seller or that may be hereafter carried on, sold or performed therein with the consent of Seller. This contract is, and the rights to the property covered hereby are and shall be conveyed to and accepted by the purchaser, subject to all the rules and regulations now existing and/or as the same may hereafter be amended, changed or new rules adopted governing said Greenwood Memorial Park, the Mausoleum-Columbarium, the cemetery section or mausoleum-columbarium corridor in which said property is located, the Care Funds, the Crematory, the Mortuary, and/or any and all business conducted in said Greenwood Memorial Park; such rules and regulations being on file and subject to examination in the office of the Seller at Greenwood Memorial Park. Purchaser understands and agrees that the use of each section and/or mausoleum-columbarium terrace in Greenwood Memorial Park has been or, as it is developed or placed on sale, will be limited and restricted in the rules and regulations herein mentioned to the interment of the remains of persons of designated creeds, religious or fraternal organizations, or other groups, while some may be unrestricted. No transfer of the property hereby conveyed may be made to, nor may it be used for the interment of any person not eligible under said regulations. The Seller shall not be liable for any injury or damage to or destruction of the property sold or any part thereof.

It is agreed that the Seller, its licensees and permittees, shall have the right at any time to make, publish, display, sell or otherwise use or dispose of any copies, replicas, photographs, models, casts, tracings, prints, likenesses, or other reproductions of representations in any form, material, or size, of any property in Greenwood Memorial Park, including all or any portion of the property herein described or any embellishments thereof or additions thereto, and, if deemed desirable, to accompany the same with explanatory statements.

Seller reserves the right to alter or change the shape, grade, size, color, finish or appearance of the cemetery section or block or mausoleum-columbarium in which the property included in this application is located and to move, change or substitute any embellishments, improvements or structures located therein or any other activity which is incidental or convenient to the care of memorializing the human dead.

Said cemetery property does not possess a monumental privilege, but a memorial tablet conforming to the rules and regulations may be placed on any interment space covered by this contract. Memorial tablets specially designed by the Seller are sold for placement in Greenwood Memorial Park exclusively and may not be removed.

Time is and shall be of the essence of this contract and of each provision thereof. If the purchaser shall fail to pay any one or more installments of principal and/or interest when due, then the whole sum of principal and interest shall become immediately due and payable at the option of the Seller, and in addition to other remedies, the Seller may upon ten days' written notice, either delivered to purchaser personally or deposited in the United States Post Office addressed to the purchaser at his address as shown on the books of the Seller, declare this agreement, or any portion thereof, cancelled and all rights of purchaser in and to the property described herein, or any portion thereof, forfeited and cancelled. The Seller shall, upon such cancellation, be released from all obligations both at law and in equity to convey or cause to be conveyed any rights in the property herein described or any part thereof to purchaser, or to repay to said purchaser any of the money theretofore paid hereunder. The acceptance of overdue payments and/or the waiving of any term, or condition, of this contract by the Seller shall not constitute a waiver of any subsequent payment or the breach of any term, condition or provision hereof. In the event of the employment of an attorney by the Seller on account of any violation of the terms of this contract by the purchaser, a reasonable attorney's fee shall be payable by the purchaser.

If credit is allowed in this contract for half or full lot purchase, any cancellation or reduction in the number of spaces will reduce the credit to the amount which would have been allowed, if any, for the number of spaces actually paid for by purchaser.

No interment shall be made in the cemetery property herein described nor any memorial placed thereon until the purchase price and interest is fully paid, except upon written permission of Seller first had in each and every case. Any interment made or which may be made in or memorial placed on said premises before full payment of the purchase price and interest shall be only temporary, and no rights shall, by reason of said interment or interments, be acquired by purchaser. The Seller reserves the right and is hereby irrevocably authorized, empowered, and granted the right, immediately upon declaration of cancellation for non-payment as above provided, or at any time thereafter, upon ten days' notice deposited in the regular United States mail addressed to purchaser at his last known address as shown upon the books of the Seller, to remove each of the remains then interred in the property described herein to a single interment space or niche in said Memorial Park to be chosen by the Seller, or at its option to cremate said remains; and the purchaser for himself or herself, his or her heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, hereby expressly consents to the conditions of this paragraph including such removal or cremation, agrees to pay all expenses thereof, and agrees to obtain any and all applications or permits required for such removal or cremation; purchaser hereby ratifying and confirming whatever the Seller may do with respect thereto. The authority hereby granted shall be deemed a right coupled with an interest and irrevocable until the purchase price of said property and interest is paid.

It is expressly understood that acceptance of this agreement shall not preclude the Seller from filing a claim against the estate of said deceased and such claim shall be an additional and cumulative remedy, the filing of which shall not release the purchaser nor prevent the taking of any legal procedure necessary to effect the collection of this obligation.

The purchaser expressly agrees that this agreement shall constitute a preferred claim against the estate of said purchaser for any and all amounts which shall be unpaid hereunder at the time of his or her death; and that all unpaid installments hereunder, with all accrued interest, shall upon the death of said purchaser, or any of them, become immediately due and payable.

The Seller reserves and shall have the right to remove and destroy any and all handles and other metal or glass parts or adornments in or on caskets used for cremation services. The Seller shall not be responsible for and shall have the right to destroy or otherwise dispose of any personal effects, clothing or other articles left in its care or received with the remains of a deceased person which are not called for within 60 days after the mortuary service.

No assignment, either voluntary or involuntary, may be made of this contract, without the consent of the Seller in writing first had and obtained. In the event of either voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy proceedings by or on the part of the purchaser, Seller at its sole option shall have the privilege of returning to purchaser hereunder, all moneys previously paid by purchaser and cancelling the contract in the manner hereinabove provided, or Seller shall have the privilege of applying the money previously paid by purchaser as a credit to the purchase of any property then offered for sale and at the price at which property is being sold and Seller shall thereupon be released from all obligations either in law or in equity and from the terms of this contract and may dispose of remains and memorials as herein provided.

The Seller expressly reserves the right at any time it finds itself unable to fulfill this agreement or perform any service or make any interment because of strikes, invasion, insurrection, riot, war, order of any military or civil authority, order of court, or because of any other unforeseen contingency, or misrepresentation or fraud in the procuring of same, or because of any mistake or error in description, location, or availability of property or because the person for whom the service, commodity or property is procured is not eligible for interment in the property herein described, or is an undesirable, criminal or immoral person, or does not qualify under the above rules and regulations, to return to the purchaser all moneys that may have been paid hereunder for the items affected by such and this contract shall as to such affected items thereupon become null and void without further obligation or liability on the part of Seller.

It is agreed by and between the parties that it is impractical and extremely difficult to fix the actual damage, if any, which may proximately result from a breach of this contract or any error or mistake in connection therewith, and that in case of the failure of Seller to perform or furnish, or in case of any error or mistake in connection with the services, commodities, or property provided hereunder, or any other breach of this contract and a resulting loss, Seller's liability hereunder shall be limited to and fixed at one hundred dollars as liquidated damages and not as a penalty and this liability shall be exclusive.

If, within thirty days from the date hereof, the purchaser has discharged all the obligations of this contract, including total payment of all of the purchase price, no charge will be made for interest.

Seller will positively not resell or attempt to resell for the purchaser any or all of said property herein described.

It is expressly agreed that this Security Agreement and the rules, regulations, conditions, and restrictions above referred to, governing said Greenwood Memorial Park contain and embody all terms and conditions to be performed by the parties hereto and that any promise, representation or agreement not embodied herein or in said rules and regulations is expressly waived, unless reduced to writing and signed by an officer of Seller and attached to this agreement.

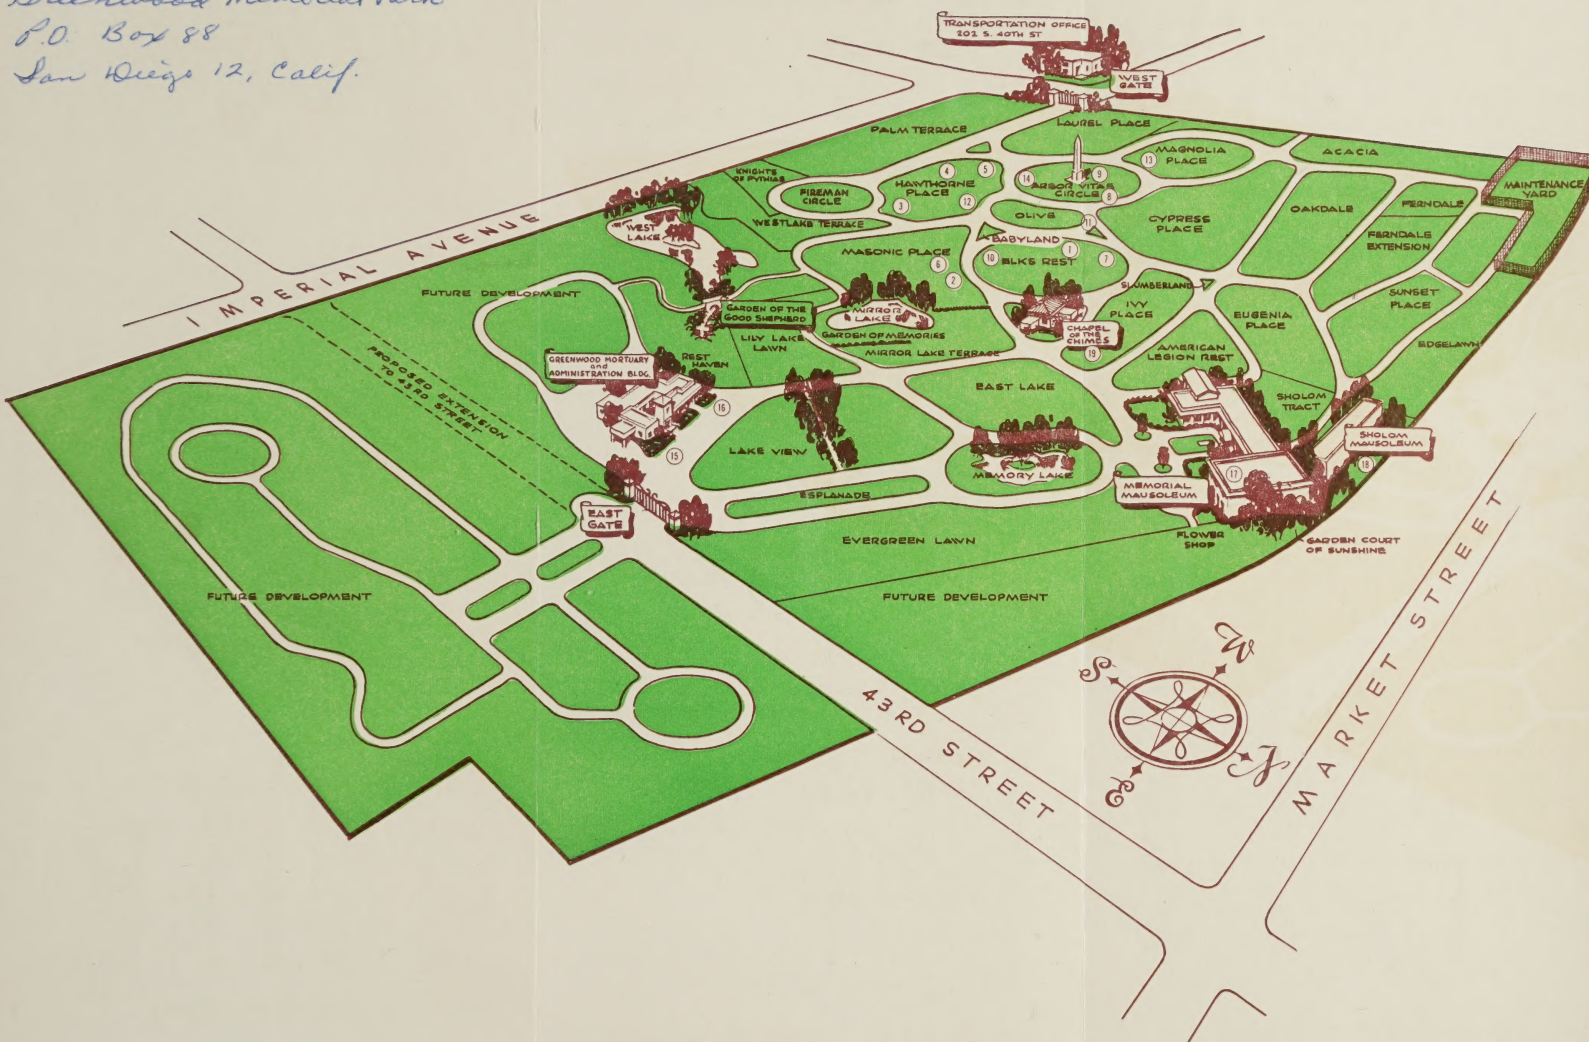

It is mutually agreed that the provisions of this Agreement shall apply to and bind the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of Seller and purchaser, respectively. It is further agreed that when this Agreement is signed by more than one purchaser, each of such purchasers becomes jointly and severally bound and liable hereunder. Should suit be commenced to collect any sum due hereunder, the purchaser promises to pay such sum as the court shall adjudge reasonable as court costs and attorney's fees in such action.

Rules and Regulations

REGULATIONS OF CONDUCT The following is a summary of a portion of the rules and regulations adopted by the Board of Directors of Greenwood Cemetery Association. These rules shall govern the conduct of everyone while in Greenwood Memorial Park.

SACRED GROUNDS Visitors are reminded that Greenwood is a sacred place. Quiet and reverence must be observed by everyone. Greenwood is a private Memorial Park and the right is reserved to refuse admittance at any time. Conduct or dress which is considered by Greenwood to be disrespectful, discourteous, or objectionable is prohibited.

VISITING HOURS are from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. The Cemetery and Mausoleum close at 5:30 P.M. The Mortuary is always open; however, visiting hours in the Mortuary are from 8:30 A.M. to 10:00 P.M.

CHILDREN under sixteen years of age are not permitted in the Park unless accompanied by responsible adults. Young children must be kept in hand. Children on roller skates, bicycles or scooters are not permitted under any circumstances.

DOGS and other pets are not allowed, except when kept within an automobile.

AUTOMOBILE RADIOS must be turned off or turned down so that the sound cannot be heard outside the car.

AUTOMOBILE SPEED LIMIT is 15 miles per hour.

PICNICKING, OR LYING ON LAWN OR BENCHES is not permitted.

PAPERS AND DISCARDED FLOWERS should be placed in the rubbish containers provided for them. Leaving them on the lawn or in places other than these containers is not permitted.

PLACEMENT OF POTTED PLANTS, baskets, wreaths, etc., at interment locations is permitted only on Easter, Memorial Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas. Any person availing himself of this privilege should remove the container within five days of placement. Greenwood is not responsible for any flowers or containers placed at any interment location on the grounds or in the Mausoleum.

PLACEMENT OF ARTIFICIAL FLOWERS is not permitted anywhere in Greenwood.

PHOTOGRAPHS taken by the general visiting public with small hand cameras are permitted on the grounds but not within buildings. The use of tripods and all commercial or professional photography is prohibited in Greenwood, except when written permission is obtained from the management, or when the photographer is accompanied by an official of Greenwood. Photographs of the Chapels when a funeral service is in progress are prohibited.

WALKING ACROSS INTERMENT SECTIONS is not permitted except when going to or from specific interment property.

FUNERAL SERVICES are of a sacred character and open only to the family and friends of the deceased. Visitors are not permitted in the near vicinity of Greenwood's churches or other areas when funeral services are being conducted. They may ascertain from attendants when the chapels will be open for visitation.

SOLICITING, PEDDLING, BEGGING AND DISTRIBUTION OF LITERATURE, or any activity of a commercial or political nature, is strictly forbidden within the confines of the Park.

LOUD TALKING, WHISTLING AND LAUGHTER are not permitted as they may be offensive to bereaved persons within the Park.

SMOKING OR EXPECTORATING within the chapels or Mausoleum is prohibited.

PERSONS WEARING SHORTS or other types of abbreviated clothing will not be admitted to the chapels or the Mausoleum or Greenwood Cemetery as such attire may be offensive to those whose loved ones sleep here and is not in keeping with the atmosphere of these sacred places.

BICYCLES AND MOTORCYCLES are allowed only upon permission of the superintendent. If allowed, the persons using them must come in a respectful and reverent manner, observing all of the proprieties of the place.

BUSES AND TRAILERS are not allowed except by special permission.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The application and agreement on the reverse side hereof is made and accepted subject to the following expressed terms and conditions: Upon receiving the purchase price with interest on all deferred payments, together with the deposit in the Endowment Care Fund, seller agrees to cause to be executed and delivered to purchaser a good and sufficient certificate of ownership or deed conveying the interment rights in said cemetery property. The use of the property conveyed is restricted to interment of the remains of the white and/or Caucasian race. In consideration of the performance by the seller of the services herein referred to and/or the sale by the seller of the properties and/or commodities herein referred to, the purchaser hereby consents and agrees to the carrying on of such businesses and activities and the sale of such commodities and the sale and performance of such services as are now carried on, sold or performed with Greenwood Memorial Park or that may be hereafter carried on, sold or performed therein with the consent of Greenwood Memorial Park.

No right in or to said property shall pass to purchaser until the purchase price, together with the deposit in the Endowment Care Fund, is fully paid and conveyance made as herein provided. The amount of the deposit to be made by purchaser in the Endowment Care Fund for Greenwood Memorial Park for the interment property and/or memorial purchased is shown on the face of this contract. The amount of this deposit is fixed from time to time by the Board of Trustees of Greenwood Cemetery Association, as provided in Section 8728 of the Health and Safety Code of California. One endowment care fund, into which deposits are made by all purchasers, provides through income for the care and maintenance of all portions of the cemetery.

This contract is, and the rights to the property covered hereby are and shall be conveyed to and accepted by the purchaser, subject to all the rules and regulations now existing and/or as the same may hereafter be amended, changed or new rules adopted governing said Greenwood Memorial Park, the Mausoleum-Columbarium, the cemetery section or mausoleum-columbarium corridor in which said property is located, the Care Funds, the Crematory, the Mortuary, and/or any and all business conducted in said Greenwood Memorial Park; such rules and regulations being on file and subject to examination in the office of the seller at Greenwood Memorial Park. Purchaser understands and agrees that the use of each section and/or mausoleum-columbarium terrace in Greenwood Memorial Park has been or, as it is developed or placed on sale, will be limited and restricted in the rules and regulations herein mentioned to the interment of the remains of persons of designated races, creeds, religious or fraternal organizations, or other groups, while some may be unrestricted. No transfer of the property hereby conveyed may be made to, nor may it be used for the interment of any person not eligible under said regulations.

Seller reserves the right to alter or change the shape, grade, size, color, finish or appearance of the cemetery section or block or mausoleum-columbarium in which the property included in this application is located and to move, change or substitute any embellishments, improvements or structures located therein or any other activity which is incidental or convenient to the care of memorializing the human dead. The seller shall not be liable for any injury or damage to or destruction of the property sold or any part thereof.

It is agreed that the seller, its licensees and permittees, shall have the right at any time to make, publish, display, sell or to otherwise use or dispose of any copies, replicas, photographs, models, casts, tracings, prints, likenesses, or other reproductions or representations in any form, material, or size, of any property in Greenwood Memorial Park, including all or any portion of the property herein described or any embellishments thereof or additions thereto, and, if deemed desirable, to accompany the same with explanatory statements.

Said cemetery property does not possess a monumental privilege, but a memorial tablet conforming to the Association's rules and regulations may be placed on any interment space covered by this contract. Memorial tablets specially designed by the seller are sold for placement in Greenwood Memorial Park exclusively and may not be removed.

Time is and shall be of the essence of this contract and of each provision thereof. If the purchaser shall fail to pay any one or more installments of principal and/or interest when due, then the whole sum of principal and interest shall become immediately due and payable at the option of the seller, and in addition to other remedies, the seller may upon ten days' written notice, either delivered to purchaser personally or deposited in the United States Post Office addressed to the purchaser at his address as shown on the books of the seller, declare this agreement, or any portion described herein, or any portion thereof, forfeited and cancelled. The seller shall, upon such cancellation, be released from all obligations both at law and in equity to convey or cause to be conveyed any rights in the property hereinabove described or any part thereof to purchaser, or to repay to said purchaser any of the money theretofore paid hereunder. The acceptance of overdue payments and/or the waiving of any term, or condition, of this contract by the seller shall not constitute a waiver of any subsequent payment or the breach of any term, condition or provision hereof. In the event of the employment of any attorney by the seller on account of any violation of the conditions of this contract by the purchaser, a reasonable attorney's fee shall be payable by the purchaser.

No interment shall be made in the cemetery property herein described nor any memorial placed thereon until the purchase price and interest is fully paid, except upon written permission of seller first had in each and every case. Any interment made or which may be made in or memorial placed on said premises before full payment of the purchase price and interest shall be only temporary, and no rights shall, by reason of said interment or interments, be acquired by purchaser. The seller, may and is hereby irrevocably authorized, empowered, and granted the right, immediately upon declaration of cancellation for non-payment as above provided, or at any time thereafter, upon ten days' notice deposited in the regular United States mail addressed to purchaser at his last known address as shown upon the books of the Association, to remove each of the remains then interred in the property described herein to a single interment space or niche in said Memorial Park to be chosen by the seller, or at its option to cremate said remains; and the purchaser for himself or herself, his or her heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, hereby expressly consents to the conditions of this paragraph including such removal or cremation, agrees to pay all expenses thereof, and hereby irrevocably authorizes seller to obtain and sign on behalf of purchaser and as his agent any and all applications or permits required for such removal or cremation; purchaser hereby ratifying and confirming whatever the seller as his agent may do with respect thereto. The authority hereby granted shall be deemed a right coupled with an interest and irrevocable until the purchase price of said property and interest is paid.

No assignment either voluntary or involuntary, may be made of this contract, without the consent of the seller in writing first had and obtained. In the event of either voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy proceedings by or on the part of the purchaser, seller at its sole option shall have the privilege of returning to purchaser hereunder, all moneys previously paid by purchaser and cancelling the contract in the manner hereinabove provided, or seller shall have the privilege of applying the money previously paid by purchaser as a credit to the purchase of any property then offered for sale and at the price at which property is being sold and seller shall thereupon be released from all obligations either in law or in equity and from the terms of this contract and may dispose of remains and memorials as herein provided.

The seller expressly reserves the right at any time it finds itself unable to fulfill this agreement or perform any service or make any interment because of strikes, invasion, insurrection, riot, war, order of any military or civil authority, order of court, or because of any other unforeseen contingency, or misrepresentation or fraud in the procuring of same, or because of any mistake or error in description, location, or availability of property or because the person for whom the service, commodity or property is procured is not eligible for interment in the property herein described, or is an undesirable, criminal or immoral person, or does not qualify under the above rules and regulations, to return to the purchaser all moneys that may have been paid hereunder for the items affected by such and this contract shall as to such affected items thereupon become null and void without further obligation or liability on the part of the seller.

It is agreed that the obligation of the seller to furnish any of the items listed on the front hereof is subject to its ability to procure same and that the price of any of the items listed is subject to any further increase or decrease due to any law, tax, governmental action, order, or regulation.

It is agreed by and between the parties that it is impractical and extremely difficult to fix the actual damage, if any, which may proximately result from a breach of this contract or any error or mistake in connection therewith, and that in case of the failure of seller to perform or furnish, or in case of any error or mistake in connection with the services, commodities or property provided hereunder, or any other breach of this contract and a resulting loss, seller's liability hereunder shall be limited to and fixed at one hundred dollars as liquidated damages and not as a penalty and this liability shall be exclusive.

Should this application include semi-developed or pre-developed ground property or pre-construction crypts, no warranty is made as to the time of development or completion or when it will be available for interment. Should the purchaser have an unexpected need for an interment before the property included in this application becomes fully developed, seller will exchange this property for an equal number of spaces of fully developed property in Greenwood Memorial Park available for interment at the same gross purchase price with full credit given for all amounts paid on principal hereunder, plus a credit of one half of the amount of the price shown hereon for purchase in pre-developed or pre-construction area, or at the purchasers option temporary entombment may be made, without additional charge, at a location selected by the seller, until such time as this property is in condition to receive permanent interments.

Seller will positively not resell or attempt to resell for the purchaser any or all of said property hereinabove described.

It is expressly agreed that this Application and Agreement and the rules, regulations, conditions, and restrictions above referred to, governing said Greenwood Memorial Park contain and embody all items and conditions to be performed by the parties hereto and that any promise, representation or agreement not embodied herein or in said rules and regulations is expressly waived, unless reduced to writing and signed by an officer of seller and attached to this agreement.

It is mutually agreed that the provisions of this Agreement shall apply to and bind the heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns of seller and purchaser respectively. It is further agreed that when this Agreement is signed by more than one purchaser, each of such purchasers becomes jointly and severally bound and liable hereunder, and waives the right to plead any statute of limitations as a defense to any action or procedure hereunder. Should suit be commenced to collect any sum due hereunder, the purchaser promises to pay such sum as the court shall adjudge reasonable as court costs and attorney's fees in such action.

Mrs. Lillie A. Ham

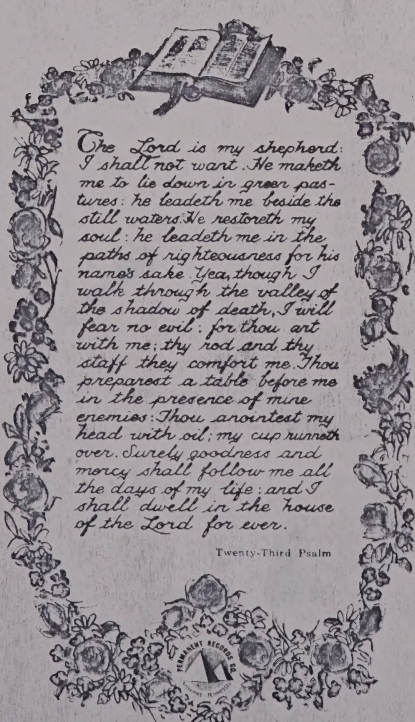

Mrs. Lillie A. Ham, 66, of 1285 E. Washington Ave., El Cajon, a former practical nurse at the Solar Division at International Harvester Co., died Monday in a hospital.

A county resident for 42 years, Mrs. Ham was a native of Hamilton, Tex., and worked at Solar for 17 years. She was a member of the Sunshine Club at Edgemont Geriatric Hospital in Santee.

She is survived by her husband, Herbert; a son, Donald of El Cajon; three daughters, Mrs. Bennielee Horton of El Cajon, Mrs. Maryalice Pittman of Arizona and Mrs. Willie L. Brown of Illinois; three brothers, Theo Wood of Riverside and Horace Wood and A.D. Wood, both of Colorado; two sisters, Mrs. Dobie Gosnell of Texas and Mrs. Effie Ray of Colorado; 13 grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren. The family suggests contributions to the Leukemia Society of America.

Services will be at noon today in Greenwood Mortuary, to be followed by burial in Greenwood Memorial Park.

Rest In Peace

Funeral Service Purchase Agreement

To: GREENWOOD MEMORIAL PARK

I wish to purchase funeral services as described in a certain agreement between us for which I agree to pay you $ 945.34 in installments as follows:

$ 10.00 paid herewith, and the balance in monthly installments of

$ 9.50, or more each, on the 5th

day of each month hereafter, starting June, 19 61

In the event that I fail to pay any of said installments promptly when due, I understand that you have the right to retain said amount and apply the same toward the payment of funeral services when rendered.

Further: In the event of my demise, it is understood and agreed that the funds deposited in this trust are to be used at Greenwood Mortuary if death occurs in San Diego County; otherwise, funds are to be transferred to the mortician, outside San Diego County, rendering the funeral service.

When I have paid said sum in full, it is my understanding that you will deposit it for me, as Trustor, with the Trustees under your Funeral Service Trust Agreement, and that you will cause to be issued to me, and signed by Said Trustees, a Trust Certificate which I have this day signed showing said deposit and the terms and conditions thereof. I am familiar with these terms and conditions, having read said Trust Certificate.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Security Agreement on the reverse side hereof is made and accepted subject to the following expressd terms and conditions:

When used in this agreement the term Seller means Greenwood Memorial Park, Inc.

No right in or to said property shall pass to purchaser until the purchase price, together with the deposit in the Endowment Care Fund, is fully paid and conveyance made as herein provided. The amount of the deposit to be made by purchaser in the Endowment Care Fund for Greenwood Memorial Park for the interment property or memorial purchased is shown on the face of this contract. The amount of this deposit is fixed from time to time by the Board of Trustees of Greenwood Memorial Park, Inc., as provided in Section 8728 of the Health and Safety Code of California. One endowment care fund, into which deposits are made by all purchasers, provides through income for the care and maintenance of all portions of the cemetery. Upon receiving the purchase price with credit service charges, and interest on all deferred payments, together with the deposit in the Endowment Care Fund, Seller agrees to cause to be executed and delivered to purchaser a good and sufficient certificate of ownership or deed conveying the interment rights in said cemetery property. The purchaser hereby consents and agrees to the carrying on of such businesses and activities and the sale of such commodities and the sale and performance of such services as are now carried on, sold or performed by Seller or that may be hereafter carried on, sold or performed therein with the consent of Seller. This contract is, and the rights to the property covered hereby are and shall be conveyed to and accepted by the purchaser, subject to all the rules and regulations now existing and/or as the same may hereafter be amended, changed or new rules adopted governing said Greenwood Memorial Park, the Mausoleum-Columbarium, the cemetery section or mausoleum-columbarium corridor in which said property is located, the Care Funds, the Crematory, the Mortuary, and/or any and all business conducted in said Greenwood Memorial Park; such rules and regulations being on file and subject to examination in the office of the Seller at Greenwood Memorial Park. Purchaser understands and agrees that the use of each section and/or mausoleum-columbarium terrace in Greenwood Memorial Park has been or, as it is developed or placed on sale, will be limited and restricted in the rules and regulations herein mentioned to the interment of the remains of persons of designated creeds, religious or fraternal organizations, or other groups, while some may be unrestricted. No transfer of the property hereby conveyed may be made to, nor may it be used for the interment of any person not eligible under said regulations. The Seller shall not be liable for any injury or damage to or destruction of the property sold or any part thereof.

It is agreed that the Seller, its licensees and permittees, shall have the right at any time to make, publish, display, sell or otherwise use or dispose of any copies, replicas, photographs, models, casts, tracings, prints, likenesses, or other reproductions of representations in any form, material, or size, of any property in Greenwood Memorial Park, including all or any portion of the property herein described or any embellishments thereof or additions thereto, and, if deemed desirable, to accompany the same with explanatory statements.

Seller reserves the right to alter or change the shape, grade, size, color, finish or appearance of the cemetery section or block or mausoleum-columbarium in which the property included in this application is located and to move, change or substitute any embellishments, improvements or structures located therein or any other activity which is incidental or convenient to the care of memorializing the human dead.

Said cemetery property does not possess a monumental privilege, but a memorial tablet conforming to the rules and regulations may be placed on any interment space covered by this contract. Memorial tablets specially designed by the Seller are sold for placement in Greenwood Memorial Park exclusively and may not be removed.

Time is and shall be of the essence of this contract and of each provision thereof. If the purchaser shall fail to pay any one or more installments of principal and/or interest when due, then the whole sum of principal and interest shall become immediately due and payable at the option of the Seller, and in addition to other remedies, the Seller may upon ten days' written notice, either delivered to purchaser personally or deposited in the United States Post Office addressed to the purchaser at his address as shown on the books of the Seller, declare this agreement, or any portion thereof, cancelled and all rights of purchaser in and to the property described herein, or any portion thereof, forfeited and cancelled. The Seller shall, upon such cancellation, be released from all obligations both at law and in equity to convey or cause to be conveyed any rights in the property herein described or any part thereof to purchaser, or to repay to said purchaser any of the money theretofore paid hereunder. The acceptance of overdue payments and/or the waiving of any term, or condition, of this contract by the Seller shall not constitute a waiver of any subsequent payment or the breach of any term, condition or provision hereof. In the event of the employment of an attorney by the Seller on account of any violation of the terms of this contract by the purchaser, a reasonable attorney's fee shall be payable by the purchaser.

If credit is allowed in this contract for half or full lot purchase, any cancellation or reduction in the number of spaces will reduce the credit to the amount which would have been allowed, if any, for the number of spaces actually paid for by purchaser.

No interment shall be made in the cemetery property herein described nor any memorial placed thereon until the purchase price and interest is fully paid, except upon written permission of Seller first had in each and every case. Any interment made or which may be made in or memorial placed on said premises before full payment of the purchase price and interest shall be only temporary, and no rights shall, by reason of said interment or interments, be acquired by purchaser. The Seller reserves the right and is hereby irrevocably authorized, empowered, and granted the right, immediately upon declaration of cancellation for non-payment as above provided, or at any time thereafter, upon ten days' notice deposited in the regular United States mail addressed to purchaser at his last known address as shown upon the books of the Seller, to remove each of the remains then interred in the property described herein to a single interment space or niche in said Memorial Park to be chosen by the Seller, or at its option to cremate said remains; and the purchaser for himself or herself, his or her heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, hereby expressly consents to the conditions of this paragraph including such removal or cremation, agrees to pay all expenses thereof, and agrees to obtain any and all applications or permits required for such removal or cremation; purchaser hereby ratifying and confirming whatever the Seller may do with respect thereto. The authority hereby granted shall be deemed a right coupled with an interest and irrevocable until the purchase price of said property and interest is paid.

It is expressly understood that acceptance of this agreement shall not preclude the Seller from filing a claim against the estate of said deceased and such claim shall be an additional and cumulative remedy, the filing of which shall not release the purchaser nor prevent the taking of any legal procedure necessary to effect the collection of this obligation.

The purchaser expressly agrees that this agreement shall constitute a preferred claim against the estate of said purchaser for any and all amounts which shall be unpaid hereunder at the time of his or her death; and that all unpaid installments hereunder, with all accrued interest, shall upon the death of said purchaser, or any of them, become immediately due and payable.

The Seller reserves and shall have the right to remove and destroy any and all handles and other metal or glass parts or adornments in or on caskets used for cremation services. The Seller shall not be responsible for and shall have the right to destroy or otherwise dispose of any personal effects, clothing or other articles left in its care or received with the remains of a deceased person which are not called for within 60 days after the mortuary service.

No assignment, either voluntary or involuntary, may be made of this contract, without the consent of the Seller in writing first had and obtained. In the event of either voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy proceedings by or on the part of the purchaser, Seller at its sole option shall have the privilege of returning to purchaser hereunder, all moneys previously paid by purchaser and cancelling the contract in the manner hereinabove provided, or Seller shall have the privilege of applying the money previously paid by purchaser as a credit to the purchase of any property then offered for sale and at the price at which property is being sold and Seller shall thereupon be released from all obligations either in law or in equity and from the terms of this contract and may dispose of remains and memorials as herein provided.

The Seller expressly reserves the right at any time it finds itself unable to fulfill this agreement or perform any service or make any interment because of strikes, invasion, insurrection, riot, war, order of any military or civil authority, order of court, or because of any other unforeseen contingency, or misrepresentation or fraud in the procuring of same, or because of any mistake or error in description, location, or availability of property or because the person for whom the service, commodity or property is procured is not eligible for interment in the property herein described, or is an undesirable, criminal or immoral person, or does not qualify under the above rules and regulations, to return to the purchaser all moneys that may have been paid hereunder for the items affected by such and this contract shall as to such affected items thereupon become null and void without further obligation or liability on the part of Seller.

It is agreed by and between the parties that it is impractical and extremely difficult to fix the actual damage, if any, which may proximately result from a breach of this contract or any error or mistake in connection therewith, and that in case of the failure of Seller to perform or furnish, or in case of any error or mistake in connection with the services, commodities, or property provided hereunder, or any other breach of this contract and a resulting loss, Seller's liability hereunder shall be limited to and fixed at one hundred dollars as liquidated damages and not as a penalty and this liability shall be exclusive.

If, within thirty days from the date hereof, the purchaser has discharged all the obligations of this contract, including total payment of all of the purchase price, no charge will be made for interest.

Seller will positively not resell or attempt to resell for the purchaser any or all of said property herein described.

It is expressly agreed that this Security Agreement and the rules, regulations, conditions, and restrictions above referred to, governing said Greenwood Memorial Park contain and embody all terms and conditions to be performed by the parties hereto and that any promise, representation or agreement not embodied herein or in said rules and regulations is expressly waived, unless reduced to writing and signed by an officer of Seller and attached to this agreement.

It is mutually agreed that the provisions of this Agreement shall apply to and bind the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of Seller and purchaser, respectively. It is further agreed that when this Agreement is signed by more than one purchaser, each of such purchasers becomes jointly and severally bound and liable hereunder. Should suit be commenced to collect any sum due hereunder, the purchaser promises to pay such sum as the court shall adjudge reasonable as court costs and attorney's fees in such action.

Funeral Service Purchase Agreement

To: GREENWOOD MEMORIAL PARK

I wish to purchase funeral services as described in a certain agreement between us for which I agree to pay you $ 945.34 in installments as follows:

$ 10.00 paid herewith, and the balance in monthly installments of

$ 9.50, or more each, on the 5th

day of each month hereafter, starting June, 1961

In the event that I fail to pay any of said installments promptly when due, I understand that you have the right to retain said amount and apply the same toward the payment of funeral services when rendered.

Further: In the event of my demise, it is understood and agreed that the funds deposited in this trust are to be used at Greenwood Mortuary if death occurs in San Diego County; otherwise, funds are to be transferred to the mortician, outside San Diego County, rendering the funeral service.

When I have paid said sum in full, it is my understanding that you will deposit it for me, as Trustor, with the Trustees under your Funeral Service Trust Agreement, and that you will cause to be issued to me, and signed by Said Trustees, a Trust Certificate which I have this day signed showing said deposit and the terms and conditions thereof. I am familiar with these terms and conditions, having read said Trust Certificate.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

MAUSOLEUM

The Greenwood Cathedral Mausoleum is recognized as one of the world's finest memorial facilities. It was dedicated as a non-sectarian sanctuary in 1918 and seventeen corridors have been added to satisfy the increasing demand for entombment.

El Cajon, California 92021

Dear Mrs. Horton:

We have learned of the recent death of your Father. Please accept our most sincere sympathy.

It must certainly have been a source of comfort to know you could entrust the arrangements to such capable hands. The competence and dependability of Greenwood Mortuary is well known.

At your funeral director's request, our company has arranged for a tree to be planted, in one of our National Forests, in living memory of your Father. This is accomplished in cooperation with the Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture, as a small part of a major endeavor to reforest the United States.

Rest assured the tree will be planted where the need is greatest, its species and location carefully determined at the discretion of the U.S. Forest Service. We know you share with us the hope that this tree will grow in full measure to bring beauty to the landscape and pleasure to all those who pass its way.

In addition, we feel you will never regret having chosen a Batesville Protective Casket. With each casket we enclose a written warranty which stipulates the protective qualities of our product. This warranty is further insured and guaranteed under a surety bond issued by SAFECO Insurance Company of America. Batesville's insured warranty is your assurance of the ultimate in protection.

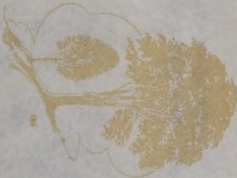

Again, we extend our sincere sympathy and feel certain you will find peace and comfort in the knowledge that every detail of the service was properly handled. The enclosed certificate acknowledges the fulfillment of the Living Memorial.

Sincerely,

BATESVILLE CASKET COMPANY, INC.

For Your Family FOREVER

Sometimes it takes the loss of a loved one to make us aware of how essential it is to secure a place for family burial before the need suddenly descends on us. The grief that always attends death, the hundred-and-one unexpected duties that arise at this unpredictable time, constitute a shocking ordeal in themselves. Thinking Men realize this: more and more they are placing this family obligation in the same category as the making of their Will, the setting up of Insurance or of an Estate. There is no more prideful way for you to express your great love and devotion to your family than to protect them against the emergencies of tomorrow by planning your funeral services now. Today is the time to do it! Take advantage of our new easy deposit plan.

IF

it is wise and business-like to insure your house against loss by fire—although you know that there is probably a 1000 to 1 chance that you will never have such a fire ... and

IF

it is wise to insure your car against fire and theft, and to carry indemnity protection against injury to others and consequent law suits ... even when you know that you will probably have no such loss or lawsuit in a whole lifetime ... and it is considered good judgment and good business to protect yourself against accidental injury or death by means of insurance, even when the probability is that you will never have a claim under such a policy; (you can buy, and thousands do every day, a policy for twenty-five cents that will pay FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS in event of your accidental death on a trip. In other words, they bet you 20,000 to 1 that it won't happen). We say...

IF

IF

good judgment indicates and experience proves that it is WISE and BUSINESS-LIKE to take precautions, at considerable expense against numerous events THAT IN ALL PROBABILITY NEVER WILL HAPPEN TO YOU OR YOUR PROPERTY.

THEN

certainly it must be wise to protect yourself and your family AGAINST THE ONE EVENT THAT MOST CERTAINLY WILL HAPPEN.

AND WHAT

is this event?

It is that some day—it is never a question of IF, only a question of WHEN ... you will have a break in your family circle and as a result have to make hurried decisions for funeral services, and we sincerely hope that the need is a remote one ... it could happen next week, however. The one UNDENIABLE FACT is that IT WILL HAPPEN.

PROTECTION

is yours, for your whole family, immediate and complete, through

Greenwood Memorial Park in San Diego

A wise man is wise before the event, not afterward. Be wise, won't you, and investigate. You will find out that this before-need plan—

1. Enables you to obtain A MEMORIAL ESTATE for much less than the usual price and with no threat of further inflation.
2. Under our FAMILY PROTECTION PLAN, in the event of the purchaser's death prior to the completion of payments on this agreement, the balance then due on the MEMORIAL ESTATE is waived and paid-up without further payment (limit $2,500).

AND

You and your loved ones reap many additional benefits: among these the finest facilities and services available in Southern California.

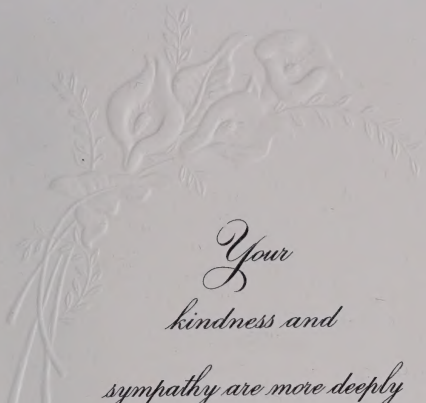

REMEMBER

that it is better to plan your MEMORIAL ESTATE when you MAY, rather than when you MUST. You will do it one way or the other. Greenwood Memorial Park points to the better way.

Services To Meet Your Needs

For almost four generations, Greenwood has helped San Diego families with funeral arrangements. And, over the years, we've learned that every family has its own personal needs and financial considerations.

For some, that means a simple crematorium service. For others, a traditional service observing their faith. And for yet others, it means an elegant service arranged in advance.

That's why more families choose Greenwood Memorial Park.

Greenwood is open to all faiths and offers the widest range of prices and services in San Diego County. And the finest mortuary, cemetery and memorial park.

Mausoleums, columbariums, and crematorium. Plus, a veterans' section, monuments, markers, and a flower shop. Everything is in one convenient location.

No frustrating processions through noisy and busy streets. Just the quiet serenity of Greenwood. And the beauty of magnificent landscaping and memorial architecture.

Call us today, or come talk to one of our family counselors.

Memorial Decorations

In the best interests of all property owners, all persons placing floral remembrances are asked to observe the following policy.

Memorial locations may be decorated only with cut flowers placed in memorial property receptacles. (No artificial or "everlasting" flowers are permitted.) On Easter, Memorial Day, and Christmas, potted plants and baskets may be placed for a period not to exceed five days. On Memorial Day, American flags may be placed upon memorials, also for a period not to exceed five days.

Management is not responsible for special remembrances placed upon memorials, and reserves the right to remove them after five days.

Addition questions can be answered at the Administration Office.

GREENWOOD
MEMORIAL PARK & MORTUARY

Welcome To Greenwood . . .

The original Greenwood Cemetery Association was founded in July 1907 by a group of prominent San Diego businessmen. Included in this group were Edgar Davies, Ralph Granger, Congressman William Kettner, and Superior Court Judge Edgar Luce. Officially, the cemetery opened in 1908.

In 1919, the Chapel of the Chimes was built. It housed the administration offices, a crematory and two columbariums. The following year, in 1920, the Cathedral Mausoleum was opened.

In 1921, the American Legion Section was dedicated. And, from 1922 until 1980, Memorial Day Services were held there in honor of American servicemen. In 1981, the services were moved to the newly built memorial section of the Garden of Tribute.

Greenwood Mortuary opened in 1948, and Sholom Mausoleum was started in 1956.

Construction on the Bible Mausoleum began in 1958. When completed, it will contain 44,000 crypts, and will be one of the world's largest mausoleums under one roof. The Last Supper Chapel and the Garden of the Resurrection are both contained within the Bible Mausoleum.

In 1966, the beautiful Salli Lynn Chapel was built in memory of the granddaughter of Edgar Davies.

Today, Greenwood Memorial Park covers 115 acres of quiet, secluded, and beautifully landscaped grounds.

Everything In One Location

There's no need to drive all over town from mortuary, to flower shop, to cemetery. Greenwood Memorial Park offers the convenience of all services in one location.

Bible Mausoleum/ Garden of Resurrection

Bible Mausoleum is one of the largest mausoleums in the world. Each of its corridors is presided over by a life-size statue of one of the apostles, made of the same famous Carrara marble used by Michelangelo. Also includes a reproduction of Michelangelo's Pieta sculpture, the Seven Archangels, and a replica of the Tomb of the Resurrection.

Salli Lynn Chapel

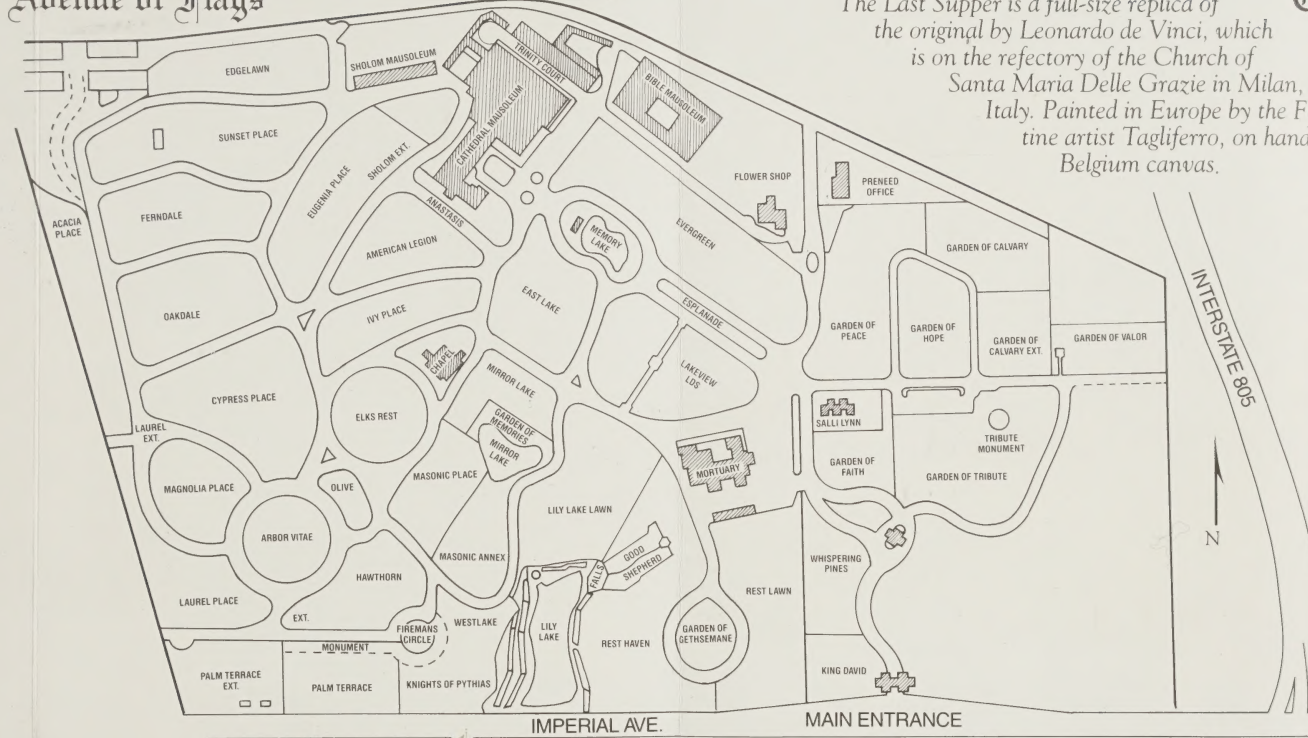

Avenue of Flags

Memory Lake

Last Supper

The Last Supper is a full-size replica of the original by Leonardo de Vinci, which is on the refectory of the Church of Santa Maria Delle Grazie in Milan, Italy. Painted in Europe by the Florentine artist Tagliferro, on hand-loomed Belgium canvas.

Garden of Tribute

Established in 1982, this monument symbolizes the five branches of the Armed Forces: Air Force, Army, Coast Guard, Marines, and Navy. In honor of American servicemen, Memorial Day Services are held annually in the Armed Forces Memorial section of the Garden of Tribute.

Flower Shop

Established in 1955, the Flower Shop is open to the public daily and Sunday, and provides floral arrangements for all occasions.
